APPRENTICE NOMINATION FORM

Master Painters Australia Victoria/
Tasmania seeks to advance, encourage, and recognise the highest standards of trade craftsmanship and ethical business practice.

Apprentice of the Year

Since 2012, Australia has had a decline in trade apprenticeship commencements which is now affecting our national economy but working together, the Australian government and industry leaders are coming up with initiatives to get people into trade apprenticeships.

Apprentices are the key to sustaining and advancing the Painting and Decorating industry in the future, which is why we need to foster and reward their achievements now. The apprentices that do good work, need to be recognised and celebrated for that.

Entry Fees

There is no cost to enter a nomination for the Apprentice of the Year award.

Notes for Entrants

For practical reasons, assessment of entries will be carried out based on information supplied on the entry form. Short listed apprentices will be presented to the panel and may be visited by the panel to verify suitability for the Award. Apprentice chances are restricted when entries are not supported by sufficient material. Entries will not be returned.
